

מכונת ניקוב הידראולית

730 HYDRAULIC PUNCHING MACHINE

The 730 is a modern machine projected for leather goods, particularly for cutting and punching belts, straps etc.

The machine 730 has been equipped with a new technological system with a complete independent and rational hydraulic group, electronically controlled by microprocessor and it's provided also with electronic pick counter. Working width is adjustable from 15 mm to 80 mm.

Furthermore, we are able to obtain various shapes of cutting dies for belt tips and end belts a simply replacement of the socket punch.

- On request, it is possible to supply with a lighting system e/o with lateral support for material.
- On request, it is possible to have different voltage.

